

December 20, 2024

A Child Questions

Read the poem on the following page.

This poem was originally published in 2007 Christmas in Zion.

Regan Juusola
Sara Kujala

A Child Questions

Mom, why was Jesus born?
Can you tell me why?

*Jesus saved us from all sin and teaches us God's Word.
And even now we want to hear that gospel we have learned.*

Dad, where was Jesus born?
Was it in a barn?

*One peaceful night in Bethlehem
in a stable long ago,
our Savior, Jesus, was truly born for all the world to know.*

Mom, was Jesus once a child?
Are you really sure?

*Jesus, young and child-like, too was just like you and me.
He felt our pains, our fears and joys,
from sins, though, He was free.*

Did shepherds hear of Jesus, Dad?
Did you hear it, too?

*Jesus came so long ago,
much before you or I.
The shepherds heard the happy news,
from angels in the sky.*

Mom, where did the angels come from?
Do they live far away?

*God sent the angels to the earth
from heaven's home on high.
We love the angels, sent by God to travel by our side.*

Dad, did Jesus hang upon the cross?
Why did He have to die?

*Yes, Jesus died upon the cross to save us from all sin.
God gave a gift, the gift of faith,
for us to hold within.*

Mom, did Jesus go to heaven?
Will we go there some day?

*With faith, we'll reach heaven, too,
as Jesus went before.
He left earth to prepare a place for us on heaven's shore.*

*Jesus is our Savior
born so long ago,
sent from God, a gift to us,
the Bible tells us so.*

